COULDN'T ON HIS SALARY

During the "good old days" when missions abroad wery purely political pluins or sops, America had some cayoys who were truly extraordinary. The State Department once sent out a circular on personnel, in reply to which heads of legations were expected to report upon the fitness of secretaries. Among the questions was:

"Does the secretary of your logation maintain himself in a sufficiently dignified manner, especially when acting as charge, and his clothing and carriage in harmony with his position."

To this one of the envoys replied: He is dignified enough, and his clothes is all right, but he don't keep a carriage. He couldn't on his pay.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by E. M. Laakman.
